Book presentation

The Last Prisoners of the Cold War - the stateless people of Latvia in their own words

When: Wednesday 27 September at 3pm

Where: Room S2.2, Louise Weiss Building, European Parliament, Strasbourg

Media representatives are invited to attend the presentation of a new book which chronicles thirty one personal stories from the stateless people of Latvia who number some 400,000 in total. They are denied citizenship despite having lived in Latvia - in many cases - for their entire lives.

Complimentary copies of the book will be available for journalists.
