Hosted by MEPs

Yannick Jadot, Ska Keller (Greens/EFA)
Marie Arena, Emmanuel Maurel (S&D)
Anne-Marie Mineur (GUE)

Location: The European Parliament, Brussels.
Date: Wednesday June 28 2017
Time: 9:30 – 13:30

Overview

As we take stock of recent political events in the US and Europe concerning trade policy and its impacts, we will bring together a range of experts, academics, NGOs and MEPs to discuss alternatives to the current model and how to improve trade policy going forward.

As the progressive wing in the European Parliament, we will investigate realistic alternatives and present options for positive change in areas such as democracy and transparency, social and environmental standards, investor duties and rights, to multilateralism and global supply chains.

- Live-streaming will be available on the day
- Interpretation will be provided in LT, ES, DE, ES, FR, IT, PT, NL, BG, CZ, HL, RO, SL, HU
- Coffee and lunch will be served
- Registration is required if you do not have access to the European Parliament: register here!
