Towards an Alliance for the Future: A new vision for EU–Canada relations

Following the EU–Canada Summit in Montreal, the EU and Canada have an opportunity to build a stronger partnership and lay the foundations for a broader alliance of democracies. In an increasingly uncertain geopolitical landscape, the Greens/EFA Group calls for closer cooperation that strengthens strategic independence, defends international law and promotes a fairer global order.

In this paper, we outline our vision for a future EU–Canada partnership, including stronger cooperation on climate action, clean energy, research, security and democratic resilience. We also set out clear priorities: avoiding new fossil fuel dependencies, protecting environmental and social standards, and addressing the unresolved shortcomings of CETA.
