Last Minute Agreement: Quotes Damian Boeselager and Henrike Hahn

EU Budget 2022

Last night, negotiators from the European Parliament, Commission and Council reached a last-minute agreement on the EU budget for 2022.

Henrike Hahn MEP, Greens/EFA Group shadow rapporteur on the EU budget for 2022, comments:

"The last-minute breakthrough in the negotiations enables investments in the Green Deal and substantial financial injections into climate, environment, biodiversity, and the transition to a climate-neutral economy. This green EU budget increases the pace for a shift towards sustainable industry, research, and transport infrastructure."

Damian Boeselager Volt MEP, and Greens/EFA Group Rapporteur for the EU Administrative Budget for 2022, comments:

"The agreement clears the way for investments in climate, research and digitalisation and the path to economic recovery. Adequate control of the EU Recovery Plan is a key building block for sustainable investment in green modernisation and strengthens cohesion and citizens' trust in the EU. I am especially happy that we managed to strengthen the European institutions, enabling them to tackle the many challenges and opportunities of our times."
