

Claus Molitor is a Situation Analyst in the Jurisdiction, Complementarity and Cooperation Division in the Office of the Prosecutor (OTP) of the International Criminal Court (ICC) and has been working for the OTP since 2007. During this time he has been working on the situations in the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Kenya, Georgia, Nigeria and Mali among others. Prior to working for the ICC, Mr. Molitor worked as a Human Rights Officer with the United Nations peace-keeping mission in the Democratic Republic of the Congo. Mr. Molitor holds a Master's Degree in Human Rights and Democratization and studied Political Science, International and European law and English at the University of Bonn.

Antônia Pereira de Sousa is an Associate Cooperation Officer within the International Relations Task Force of the Jurisdiction, Complementarity and Cooperation Division in the Office of the Prosecutor (OTP) of the International Criminal Court (ICC). Prior to working in the ICC, Ms. Pereira de Sousa worked for the Centre de Recherche en droit public of the Law Faculty of the Université de Montréal, Canada, where she did legal research in the areas of international law, globalization and issues of governance and global security. Ms. Pereira de Sousa also worked for a local NGO in Cape Town, South Africa, where she was responsible for providing legal advice to refugees and asylum seekers, as well as for organizing workshops and weekly radio programs on refugee and asylum seekers' issues. Ms. Pereira de Sousa holds a Masters' degree in International Humanitarian Assistance from the Law Faculty of Aix-en-Provence, France, as well as a Diplôme de l'Institut d'Etudes Politiques of Aix-en-Provence.